Summary: LATE FILED. On November 3, 2000, James Weil, on behalf of Aglet Consumer Alliance (Aglet), participated in a telephone conference with ALJ McKenzie. Also in the telephone conference participated Nino Mascolo, attorney for Southern California Edison Company (Edison). Weil stated that Aglet and Edison were unable to agree on the scope of a late-filed exhibit that ALJ McKenzie requested during hearings. Weil argued that expansion of the scope of the exhibit to include revenue requirement corrections, present value calculations of revenue sharing amounts, and an additional productivity scenario would unfairly allow Edison a second opportunity to submit direct testimony. If the exhibit were to be expanded, Weil requested an opportunity to cross-examine an Edison witness on its contents. Weil agreed that Aglet and Edison would co-sponsor an exhibit that will make revenue requirement corrections and will show present value calculations, but will not include an additional productivity scenario.

11/7/00 A99-08-043 Roseville Telephone Company, to review extended area service compensation and establish replacement revenue funding.

Summary: AUGMENTATION REQUIRED. On November 6, 2000, representatives of the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (“ORA”) met with Cmmr. Duque in an all-party meeting in San Francisco. Also present were Cmmr. Wood, Tim Sullivan, advisor to Cmmr. Duque, Jonathan Lakritz, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, and representatives of Roseville Telephone Company (“Roseville”), Pacific Bell Telephone Company (“Pacific”), and Verizon Telephone Company (“Verizon”). Roseville stated that the $11.5 million must be replaced and there should be no gap from the date Pacific terminates the Extended Area Service (“EAS”) payments with Roseville and the date Roseville receives the $11.50 million through CHCF-B. ORA expressed its disappointment with the Proposed Decision and stated that there should be no replacement funding for EAS; there should be no OII; Pacific should refund $11.5 million to ratepayers; and Roseville should not be allowed to draw from CHCF-B. Pacific expressed that it agrees with the Proposed Decision that Pacific should not be required to refund $11.5 million to ratepayers. Verizon expressed that the Commission should examine the issue of whether replacement funding is needed from a Z or LE factor perspective – namely, whether EAS qualifies as a Z or LE factor.

11/9/00 A99-08-043 Roseville Telephone Company, to review extended area service compensation and establish replacement revenue funding.

Summary: On November 6, 2000, Tim McCallion, President-Pacific Region, Verizon California Inc. (“Verizon”) met with Cmmr. Duque in an all-party meeting in San Francisco. Also present were Cmmr. Wood, Tim Sullivan, advisor to Cmmr. Duque, Jonathan Lakritz, advisor to Cmmr. Wood; Brian Chang, Jean Jarjoura and Sindy J. Yun-Counsel from Office of Ratepayer Advocates; Mike Campbell and Greg Gierczak from Roseville Telephone Company (“Roseville”), and Sean P. Beatty-Cooper, White & Cooper representing Roseville; and Cynthia G. Marshall, Margaret Pascoe, and Colleen

O'Grady-Counsel from Pacific Bell Telephone Company ("Pacific"). McCallion stated that the parties to the case presented evidence that is not consistent with the New Regulatory Framework (NRF) and that the discussion of Roseville's efficiencies and revenue requirement was not consistent with NRF. McCallion commented that the proper focus should be whether or not the Extended Area Service payment at issue meets the criteria of an exogenous factor under Roseville and Pacific's NRF.
